The fabric bracelet is closed and adjusted with a plastic ring. Once worn, it cannot be removed. It is a single-use model that must be unhooked with scissors.

A versatile fabric control bracelet

This identification wristband can be used to control access to a specific event or location. It is available in one size: 350 x 15 millimetres. It can be personalised with a text, logo and/or image from 100 pieces ordered.

- Warning: this type of clasp is not suitable for children as it can continue to tighten but not the other way round / therefore risk of tourniquet.
